

Lots of tricks and action at the Clarkson Rodeo

Rick Nicholson

Rick Nicholson

Rick Nicholson

Gary Evans

Gary Evans

Rick Nicholson

The Clarkson Rodeo Days rode into Clarkson for its third year the week-end of June 17 with a huge welcome from record crowds and plenty of excitement to go around. Over 4,000 spectators turned out over the three-day event to enjoy this professional Rodeo with events such as Bull Riding, Bareback Bronc riding, Cowgirl Barrel Racing (which feature a couple of local women, Brittany Colton and Andrea Louis), and lots more rodeo tricks. This year's specialty act featured the S.L. Pemberton family performing trick riding and roping to the thrill of all who watched.

This is Suburban News & The Herald -- where the focus is on the communities we serve.

Rick Nicholson