

Eleven-year-old Andrew Kita showed excellent skills in scoring 115 points in the recent “Soccer Challenge” sponsored by the St. Leo Knights of Columbus, Council #9461 on the Hilton Community Center grounds. Andrew has been playing soccer for about five years. Hilton-Parma Recreation, represented by Jim Volkmar, helped the K of C group providing two portable goals for the contest. Right, Cody Malek-Renfer is a 12-year-old who has played soccer for about seven years. He scored 45 points.

Hilton-Parma Recreation partnered with the St. Leo's Knights of Columbus Council #9461 to offer a “Soccer Challenge” for the youth of the Hilton community. All participants were given 15 penalty kicks from a distance of 12 yards and points are awarded depending upon the area of the scoring zones through which the ball passed. The competition was open to all boys and girls ages 10 to 14 and the following will advance to a district championship in October: Age 10 - Justin Goodrich; Age 11 - Andrew Kita; Age 12 - Ryan Fowler.

Christopher Fillion, 11, scored 45 points and a direct hit on the photographer's forehead, who was standing behind the net.

Justin Goodrich, a ten-year-old, scored 100 points. He's been playing soccer for about 5 years. Photographs by Walter Horylev.
